EVAN BERGER

Livingstone-Macleod

Why I'm Running

To be an effective MLA requires a strong support network as well as the ability, desire, and commitment to serve the people and the communities of the constituency and the province. I have that network, ability, desire and commitment. I am humbled by the many conversations, calls, notes and messages of support urging me to please run again. I believe everyone has a role to play in building a positive future for all Albertans, and I want to continue to be your voice in the Legislature. I enjoy spending time in, working to engage with, learning the needs and aspirations of the community, and I am committed to working hard to fulfill them. I am proud and confident in the leadership being demonstrated by Jim Prentice in setting a new and more stable path forward for Alberta. Though there will be challenges, I believe that, under his guidance and with your participation, we can keep Alberta the best jurisdiction in the world to work, live and raise a family.

Biography

Evan was born in High River and raised on a mixed farm southwest of Nanton. Along with his wife Laurie, Evan continues to operate the farm with some occasional weekend help from their two daughters and son.

Evan was elected to Willow Creek Municipal District Council in 1992, then elected Reeve in 1998 and served in that capacity until March of 2008 when elected as MLA for Livingstone-Macleod.

In the Legislature, Evan served as Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Sustainable Resource Development from 2008-2011 and as Minister of Agriculture from October of 2011-2012.

Jim Prentice has a realistic plan to secure our future.

This plan takes immediate and long term action to:

- Double our savings in the Heritage Fund
- Cut government waste – focus dollars on the front lines
- Invest in hospitals, schools and roads
- Use new revenue to break the boom and bust cycle
- Protect Alberta jobs
- Diversify the economy across all sectors
